For Immediate Release:

THE REBUILD AMERICA'S SCHOOLS ACT OF 2019, H.R.865

Rebuild America's Schools thanks Chair Bobby Scott and the House Education and Labor Committee and House cosponsors for the consideration of the Rebuild America's Schools Act H.R. 865.

Rebuild America's Schools Supports the Rebuild America's Schools Act. RAS supports the Rebuild America's Schools Act which will provide federal grants and bonds to assist states and local school districts build, repair, renovate and modernize our nation's schools and classrooms. H.R. 865 will provide federal financial assistance partnering with states and local school districts to provide safe, modern, healthy, energy efficient schools for students helping repair, modernize schools and creating local jobs.

The Rebuild America's Schools Coalition supports the Rebuild America's Schools Act providing the long term improvement of public school facilities through grants and tax credit bonds to partner with state and local efforts to finance public school building infrastructure.

The Rebuild America's Schools Act addresses a national need to assist states and local school districts to provide safe, modern, healthy, energy efficient schools for our students. Federal financial support will help repair, renovate and modernize America's schools stimulating and creating local jobs.

The Rebuild America's Schools Act is a critical federal link in providing America's students modern, technologically and energy efficient schools and classrooms where they can develop the educational skills necessary to achieve and succeed in the 21st century workforce.
